A Tribute to Robert E. Hudec

The Minnesota Journal of Global Trade is proud to present this tribute in memory of Professor Robert E. Hudec. Professor Hudec was not only a valued teacher and scholar, but also one of the founders of this Journal.

Professor Hudec graduated magna cum laude from Yale Law School in 1961. He served as law clerk to Mr. Justice Potter Stewart of the U.S. Supreme Court from 1961-1963. He also held positions with the Office of the Special Representative for Trade Negotiations, the Office of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, and Yale Law School before joining the faculty of the University of Minnesota Law School in 1972.

This tribute contains pieces by some of Professor Hudec's colleagues, students, and former co-clerks. This tribute recognizes Professor Hudec's tremendous contributions to his students, colleagues and the field of international trade law.
